Connecting in Professional Development

Clearing the Way: Understanding the New Math TEKS for Grades K-5

Presented by

Monice Kretzchmer, Region XX

The 2014-2015 school year will bring several new challenges and changes to our classrooms. One of the most important changes will take place in the area of mathematics. The new math TEKS will be implemented next school year. It is very important that all teachers are informed and prepared. This professional development event provides an opportunity to get ahead of the game and go into the next school year ready for these changes. In this training, you will have an opportunity to analyze the new math TEK and learn techniques for instructional implementation.

UIW Teacher Network events join veteran and novice teachers in professional collaboration. Come and join this professional network!
